Glooscap 4-H Club Notes

By Jordan Richard

At our general meeting this month on April 7th, we had an Easter party! Projects reports were given.

The club rally was held on March 21st, from which some of our talented 4-her's were able to go to the County Rally.

The members who competed were as follows: Junior Speaker, Laura Sharpe, 3rd place. Junior Introducer, Anna MacFarlane. Junior Thanker: Madison Rushton, 2nd place. Intermediate Speaker: Maria Wood, 3rd place. Senior Speaker: Jessica van den Hoek. Junior Demonstration: Byron Wood.

Our woodsmen team came in 3rd place in the junior skills competition at county rally. The next meeting will be held May 5th.

During the Glooscap Trail 4-H Club photography meeting, the colourful Lowland Gardens van was part of the photography project. Students shown in the photo along with Toni and Gerri are Maria Wood, Laura Sharpe, Arian Winters and Emily Prescott. (Submitted Photo).

Spring

*Last night the wind sang soft and sweet,
It sang of birds and flowers.
To-day it's blowing just the same,
But it carries April Showers.*

*This morning snowflakes softly fell,
But then it turned to rain.
The sun swept out and took the snow,
To leave bare ground again.*

*A finch is in the apple tree
His coat is turning yellow.
A spring time gift, he sits about,
The saucy little fellow.*

*A robin hops across the lawn,
Close to the garden wall.
Where crocuses this message bloom,
"It's spring time after all".*
